Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election of Group I, claims 1-3 in the reply filed on 8/8/06 is acknowledged. Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Waggener et al (US 4,733,823).

Waggener discloses a method comprising:

depositing a layer of etch stop material 17 on a front side of a wafer substrate 10 (Fig.4, vol.3, lines 58-61);

etching the substrate up to the etch stop material to define a plurality of nozzle chambers 11 (Fig.1) and so that portions of the etch stop layer define roof walls for respective nozzle chambers (Fig.6); and etching each said portion to form at least one ink ejection port 13 in each said portion (Fig.8).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 2-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Waggener et al (US 4,733,823) in view of Shimada et al (US 5,802,686).

The discussion of Waggener from above is repeated here.

As to claims 2-3, Waggener fails to disclose an actuator and associated circuitry.

Shimada teaches that a useful inkjet printhead includes a piezoelectric actuator to eject ink from nozzles 108 (Fig.1b). The actuator inherently has associated circuitry so that the printhead is functional. A piezoelectric actuator is useful in combination with a silicon substrate pierced with holes (col.2, lines 51-54), as in Waggener.

It would have been obvious to one with ordinary skill in the art to form an actuator with associated drive circuitry, as cited, in the method of Waggener because Shimada teaches that this is useful for forming inkjet printheads with enhanced durability.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Taub is cited to show etching towards an etch stop layer.
